Bereavement Support Services

Rowland Brothers are a family run Funeral Directors who understand the difficulties that many people face in coming to terms with the loss of a loved one.

The Rowland Brothers Foundation was set up earlier this year to offer bereavement counselling in the form of group sessions and on a one to one basis. This is a free service and is available to everyone over the age of 18yrs in Croydon and the surrounding areas.

Each support group is small in numbers and facilitated by a qualified Counsellor with many years' experience. To enquire on our bereavement support in your area please contact Christine on 020 8660 5547 or email Christine@rowlandbrothers.com
